Not only does her mom expect her to raise the other seven children in their home, but she's also required to turn a blind eye to her father's infidelity, as well as maintain a perfect 4.0 GPA in order to get the academic scholarship she desperately needs to attend college. To complicate matters even more, she's also a rape victim. The only person she's told is her best friend, Eric, whom she's secretly in love with. Through all of this Kamilah convinces herself that she has everything under control. That is until she meets Summer Freeman. The beautiful new girl at school, Summer introduces Kamilah to a lifestyle that she's never known, including fashion, luxury, and alternative viewpoints that conflict with her Christian upbringing. Pretty soon the love she has for her new friend evolves into something more, and Kamilah has to prove which love she will devote herself to. Will she stay in the same sex relationship that feels so right, or will she embrace the faith she didn't know meant so much to her?.
