From the small room at the rear of the shop, where he was bucklmg together the segments of a fishing-rod, Jack shouted: All right, mother! She had been setting the front bedroom straight; an old red handkerchief twisted turbanlike about her black hair, her sleeves rolled up above her elbows. Having shoved the bed out from the wall, made it, and shoved it back again, she had knelt down beside the open window to gaze ravenously across the broad market square at the big, rambling Inn known as the Horse and Car. It loomed big and bright in a shaft of sunlight now, and Mrs. Gallaher s dark eyes watered eagerly at it. A glance to the left down the main street had shown her the round-faced, rpund-eye James Donohue, with finishing-rod basket.
