Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Abena feels hopeless and alone when her classmates begin to ridicule her for the way she looks. Despite positive reinforcements from her parents, Abena chooses to believe what her peers tell her; that she is ugly. No Mistake began as a short story for youth, inspired by a disturbing documentary (A Girl Like Me, by Kiri Davis), which brings attention to how an alarming number of modern-day Black children continue to see themselves as racially inferior. Although this story is about a little Black girl overcoming cruelty and ridicule from her own kind by learning self-love, the universal theme of self-acceptance resonates with ALL ages and ethnic backgrounds. Whether a child is being victimized or is being the bully, the purpose of this book is to raise questions to encourage self-discovery and positive transformation. The book includes a Discovery Guide workbook, with thought-provoking questions and exercises related to the story. TESTIMONIALS Your story is one that children can easily identify with. I was able to relate to all of the characters in your story on some level. You did an incredible job of character development for such a short book. Your book is so well thought out and your message so clearly communicated. You truly are a gifted writer! Your lesson is a crucial one and your book a valuable tool for parents and educators. Eve Panzer MLIS, Founder, Barefoot Librarian Children s Bookseller Washington writes clearly, without sentimentality, but with bright dialog and great visuals. I felt like a fly on the wall in Abena s bedroom. This book transcends race, creed, or nationality. Any educator can broaden a discussion to encompass all types of prejudice....
