Reviews

This ebook is worth acquiring. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You will not truly feel monotony at at any time of your own time (that's what catalogues are for about if you ask me).

For some families, the overall rise in health insurance costs has made the Health Insurance Is DOL current price of employment-based health insurance difficult to afford. Expensive for Some reported that in 1993, 16 percent of employees paid 150 or more per Families month for family health insurance premiums. The percentage of employees in state and local governments who spend 150 or more per month for family health insurance is even greater than in private industry. In 1992, 36 percent of state and local employees paid 150 or more per month for family health insurance. In addition, state and local employees average monthly premium contribution for families was 139. 23 - almost five times the 28. 97 average premium contribution for employee-only coverage. For low-income families, high premiums may make health insurance unaffordable. For example, premiums of 150 per month represent 9 percent of gross income for a family with annual income of 20, 000. Lower-income and part-time employees are less likely than higher-income Page 13 GAO HEHS-97-35 Family Health Insurance This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
