Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Trip Through Headline Land Man-in-the-Street and Man-who-Knows are walking together engaged in lively argument. They are accosted by a Stranger of noble bearing and benign countenance. Stranger - Friends, I trust you will pardon my intrusion, but I can no longer refrain from asking information. I am a native of Saturn, a planet which long since achieved a second Golden Age. We are able to learn what is going on in all the other planets, in a general way, and we can travel from planet to planet. Until recently we never thought the Earth important enough to warrant a visit, but we are aware of the agitations of an unprecedentedly mighty conflict here at present; and moreover, to our sensitive perceptions, it has been evident that you are not merely afflicted with open strife, which often has aspects of nobility, but that you are suffering from some wide-spread moral malady - some plague of ignoble public falsehood, some fever of lies and insanity of false witness. So our Central University sent me here to investigate; and I came to this great Republic, which of all things earthly is the favorite contemplation of Saturnine philosophers, thinking that here I should breathe an atmosphere of charitable impartiality. Imagine my distress to find here also so much recrimination and venom! Man-in-the-Street - No wonder you are bewildered! These Germans, German-Americans and pro-Germans have been making a lot of impudent noise with their magazines, books, pamphlets and what-not! But of course America is neutral! Man-who-Knows - With all charity toward my friend, let me warn you that he speaks of these matters with more passion than truth or...
